

PERIODICALS RECEIVED

This is the current list of periodicals received for review in Computing Reviews. International standard serial numbers (ISSNs) are provided to facilitate obtaining copies of articles or subscriptions.

We welcome suggestions of periodicals that should be considered for systematic review, as well as individual papers or publications that particularly merit review. Please send email with complete information (title, author, name of journal, issue in which article appears, publisher, and ISSN if possible) to: wierzbicki@acm.org.

This list supersedes the one published in the November 2002 issue of CR.
